NEW SEED PAPER MEMORIAL STATIONERY DESIGNS AVAILABLE NOW

A caring and thoughtful gift for the bereaved congregation. An extremely powerful and effective marketing tool for your business.

Shaw's seed paper memorial stationery offers a truly unique opportunity for bereaved families to create a stunning floral memorial to their loved one.

Now the popular range has been extended to include keepsake photographic backing cards (as pictured opposite), which were extremely well received by funeral professionals at the National Funeral Exhibition 2019.

Detachable adornments are crafted into hearts or butterflies from a handmade paper consisting of cotton fibre, British flower petals and perennial British wildflower seeds and are mounted onto a backing card.

By planting the backing card's detachable adornment, according to the instructions printed on the reverse, the seeds pressed into the adornments will grow and blossom into beautiful wildflowers, creating a perpetual tribute to a loved one.

Tokens and bookmarks are ideal for funeral professionals to give out to attendees of the funeral so that everyone can grow their own tribute in memory of the deceased. As the backing cards are personalised with your choice of wording, this thoughtful gift doubles as a subtle yet effective business card. Alternatively, you could choose to gift the token to the bereaved family only as a kind gesture in their time of suffering.

Our new photographic designs are now available and remain beautiful keepsakes even after the adornment has been removed for planting.
